

FAQ's

What are the benefits of using Tender Notice Board?

Humanitarian tender notices are published in various locations by numerous organisations. Notices can be found on various databases, local and global websites of organisations and even newspapers. Globally there are literally thousands of sources.

Finding the right business opportunities is difficult and time-consuming, and missing perfect opportunities is all too easy.

Tender Notice Board saves you time, money and effort by providing you piece of mind that your company will not miss out on any suitable business opportunities. Instead of searching through a long list of websites and databases from hundreds of sources to find the business opportunities suitable for your company that you want to bid for, you can now focus on other tasks and your bids while we send the most relevant business opportunities straight to your inbox and mobile phone.

Why should I subscribe?

Tender Notice Board set ourselves apart from any competition by offering a unique service tailored to meet the needs of an individual company looking for business opportunities in the humanitarian and governmental sector. We achieve this by manually validating each business opportunity according to your business preferences and locations ensuring you only receive tender notices relevant to your business into your inbox daily.

Every month more than 4000 new tenders are listed on the Tender Notice Board website providing you with new business opportunities. We actively search the humanitarian and governmental sector for all relevant tenders as well as publishing our partner's tender notices.

Can I have a demonstration of Tender Notice Board before subscribing?

Yes – Contact us via info@tendernoticeboard.com or call us on +4528408700 and we will provide you with a FREE 48-hours trial of our system.

Can I bookmark business opportunities/tender notices in my account?

Yes – once you are logged in click the bookmark icon located next to each tender.

Once you have clicked the icon it will show a “green tick” and the tender notice will automatically be copied across to your “My Bookmarks” folder

Can I sign up additional members of my sales team?

Yes – Included within your subscription you can add up to 3 additional team members to your account with their own login enabling them to receive tender alerts, view all tenders and bid.

Can I search for tenders once I am logged into my account?

We have an extensive search available that enables you to filter your search by many criteria including;

Buyer organisation

The title of the tender notice

The submission of bid deadline date
Buyer country of operation
Tender category

What is the Tender Notice Board?

Tender Notice Board is a tender alert service that identifies and provide companies with coverage of the humanitarian and governmental sectors business opportunities. We compile and publish tender notices from more than 1400 organisations globally, as well as business opportunities from the UN Global Market and Official Journal of the European Union. You can access the tender notices online or let us send you email alerts daily directly to your inbox or mobile phone based on your company's preferences, saving you time, money and effort and allowing you to concentrate on your company's bids.

Do Tender Notice Board alert me when an opportunity that match my company preferences is published?

Yes – We provide a notification service and it is included as part of your subscription. We notify you daily by email based on your company's preferences and provides you with the details and clickable links directly to the business opportunities that match your company's profile. Tender Notice Board is the only company within our sector that offers this extra service FREE OF CHARGE as part of our normal subscription fee.

Which tenders do we publish?

Humanitarian and governmental sectors business opportunities are published by various types of organisations including; UN organisations, international and national NGO's, central and local governments, emergency services, various ministries plus many more. Any organisation spending donor funding or public money as part of a procurement exercise is required to publicly publish the business opportunity and make it available to suppliers that wish to bid. We collate all these tender notices into one, easy to use tender alert service.

How often is the Tender Notice Board updated?

Data in the notice board is updated daily.

How do I sign up, register and subscribe?

You can sign up/subscribe online or via your mobile by going to our website www.tendernoticeboard.com and go to the Pricing page.

Choose your package, fill in the registration form that appears, click payment, select method of payment and confirm payment.

To register on the Tender Notice Board portal, you must only have;

Company name
Company address
Company business number
Valid email address
Phone number
Intended username or name of company
A password you will remember and you are good to go!